

Little Leaguers Play

Youngsters Vie For Championships

Tordondo, American, North Torrance Little Leagues go into the second round of tournament play this week after emerging victorious in their games Monday and Tuesday.

Tordondo, meeting Sunset Redondo, came out of the top side of a 4-2 victory and will meet Manhattan Premier at Carson Bowl this afternoon at 5:30.

Capacity Crowd Watches Locals Take Sixth Win

A capacity crowd witnessed a thriller Sunday when the Torrance Bluebirds took their sixth straight win — but it took the locals 12 innings to do it.

It was a tied-up game in the 8th inning with both the Bluebirds and the Normandale Stars each recording four runs.

A slow ball artist, the Normandale pitcher completely snowed the Torrance batters who were able to garner only one hit until the 6th inning.

Trailing 4-1, the Birds went to work and tied the score in short order, to end the 8th frame even-Seven.

Catcher Maggie Magallanes pulled the pins out from under the visitors with his two-bagger leading the way to a 5-4 victory.

In the second game of the second round, the Torrance nine will meet the Compton Latin American Club Sunday, at the Compton High School Park.

North-South Classic Tilt Scheduled

One of the most explosive contests in the history of the series is expected when North shoots for its second straight victory in the sixth annual pageant-added Shrine North-South Football Classic at the Los Angeles Coliseum Wednesday night, July 31.

South, which grabbed the first four clashes (two by a single point) until it was halted by a 21-6 count before a record throng of 56,859 fans last summer, is banking on the galloping talets of what experts size up as the most destructive pre-collapse backfield ever assembled.

North, boasting a formidable offensive force of its own, hopes to check the solid South with what may prove to be the strongest forward wall the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital benefit fray has seen.

ADULT TEETH
An average human adult has 32 permanent teeth.

The initial game saw Bill Kehoe, Danny Gates, Dick Dickson and Fred Rowden cover themselves with glory as they accounted for hits.

First Home Run
Danny Anderson of Tordondo set the pace as he strode to the plate — first batter up — and slammed a tremendous home run. Bill Kehoe was pitcher for the locals, who are ending their first year as a Little League team.

American Leaguers ran into over time as it took them until the ninth inning to subdue Pacific Coast, 5-3. The win entitles the Americans to meet Harbor City Thursday, 5:30 at Kissel Field.

Palica Singles
The American League team sent Irv Palica, pitcher to bat with one out in the top of the ninth. Palica singled to center field. Dick McGuire hit a long one bouncing off the fence for a two-bagger, pushing Palica to third. Randy Newell smashed a single to center field allowing the two runs to score. Charles Thorne struck out to end the inning. Palica walked one and struck out three in a row to end the game.

Steven Turner, pitcher for Pacific Coast, and Catcher Ron Chance combined talents for 10 strike outs and 2 walks. Palica fanned 14 and gave up 5 walks.

Fans Thrilled
In a thriller that had fans standing up cheering, North Torrance came through in the final inning to over power the Torrance Nationals 4-2.

Big guns for the northerners were Pitcher Cary Hubert who got three for four including one home run in the fifth. Dennis Welch tallied one hit in three tries.

The Nationals were led by John Cambon who had 2 for 3. Steve Waters and Mark Hunt also got hits off Hubert.

The score was all tied up going into the seventh frame. However, Baker, running for Jerry Leininger who was hurt sliding into third, and Hubert both crossed the plate to add the valuable points.

North Torrance will meet Bellflower Friday, 5:30 p.m. at Kissel Field.

City Hits 90,000
The population of Torrance has passed the 90,000 mark, according to the Regional Planning Commission.

ROD & GUN Chatter

By DONNA BARKDULL

Tackel bustin' albacore moved into Catalina waters over the weekend sending anglers scurrying for casting room aboard their favorite fishing crafts and the pulse pounding chase. The elusive "chicken of the sea" cut loose Friday near the 14 mile bank when deep sea enthusiasts aboard the Hurricane out of Pier Point decked over a hundred, all real lunkers. Joe Marten's San Pedro Landing chalked up their best count in many a year. Saturdays take hit the 200 mark along with 44 blue fin. Sunday, usually a dud on the fishing front, turned on the heat while 218 albies and 32 tuna hit the deck of Marten's fishing vessels.

The Estrella working the west end of Catalina accounted for 51 of the tuna take, while the Fisherman and Fisherman 2 made the big albacore hauls off the east end. Seems the popular game fish are all over the ocean.

San Diego's annual Yellow-tail Derby shifted into third gear Sunday with longfin over the 30 pound mark leading the way. Second period fish-off slated for tomorrow should really be a hassle with everyone looping lunker longfins the way they have the last week. Al Coast, only known local angler to be among the 150 qualifiers, has no qualms as to who will win the new station wagon. Said he needed a new car so might just as well win one, just as he did five years back when he took top honors in the popular San Diego derby. Wouldn't that be a "mother goose?"

Pacific Sportfishing Landing reported a weekly tally of 815 longfins, lunkers hitting a hefty 30 to 35 pounds. 37 tuna, 25 barracuda, 250 calicos, 8 white sea bass and 9 halibut rounded out the score card. Monday's fleet checked in with 116 albacore and 98 bluefin.

At got into the swing of things a couple of weeks ago by winning the Torrance Rod and Gun inter-club stinger derby at Newport Bay. Four rat-tail were brought to gaff, Al's the topper hitting only 20 pounds. Dink that it was, it was all that was needed. A the ole boy put it, "no sense in over doing it — if it would have taken a larger one to win, I would have caught it." Ugh!
